

Study Hawai'i Pau Hana

August 1, 2025

Study Hawai'i hosted a gathering of member and supporters on Friday, August 1, 2025. The networking event brought together more than thirty educators from our member schools, partner organizations, and special guests at the Old Spaghetti Factory Restaurant at Aloha Tower. Over pupus and a buffet meal and fun networking games, attendees had the chance to laugh, reconnect, and talk story with their peer schools. In his remarks, President Joel Weaver shared past accomplishments and future goals of the consortium.

Mahalo to the Hawai'i Education Study Abroad Center for hosting another virtual fair for Japanese students interested in studying in Hawai'i. HEC recruited students to attend and interact with 13 Study Hawai'i member institutions staff and students over Zoom. Those schools that participated provided positive feedback. This is a low cost way of reaching out to Japanese students with a clear interest in studying in Hawai'i. We are pleased to offer it as a recurring option for Study Hawai'i members.

Study Hawaii Speaker Series

Mitsue Varley, Senior Advisor for Hawai'i Tourism Japan presented numerous data on the Japanese market. There exist numerous opportunities for Study Hawai'i members to collaborate with HTJ on opportunities such as short-term school programs. The Sister City Summit, where 33 Japanese cities send representatives, is another opportunity to create relationships with two-way exchange programs. The next event will be held in Honolulu in May 2026.

We look forward to continuing the Speaker Series in January 2026 with Jonathan Lee from Study Portals. If you have a suggestions for a speaker who can support our efforts to improve international student recruitment, let us know!

Governor Josh Green has proclaimed November 17-21, 2025 as International Education Week in the Aloha State. Approximately $818.04 million was generated from our 8,311 international students in 2023 directly contributing to our local economy.
